(U) Parlier – Search Warrants Result in Five Gang Member Arrests

(U) Multiple law enforcement agencies working together on Tuesday served several search warrants resulting in five arrests in Fresno County. Detectives recovered over 100 grams of cocaine, $2,500 worth of street-level marijuana substances, and items related to narcotic sales. They also found $12,000 in cash, a stolen Glock with a fully automatic switch, and multiple rounds of ammunition. A probation search in the city of Del Rey found two juveniles, who were on probation for previous firearm-related charges, were found to be in possession of a .22 caliber rifle and .22 caliber ammunition. Another juvenile on probation for previous firearm-related charges was found to be in possession of live ammunition during a probation check. Of the five gang members arrested, three were juvenile offenders.

(U) Hawaii – Former Marine Accused of Leading Neo-Nazi Group, Planned Attack on New York Synagogue

(U) Honolulu – Matthew Belanger is accused of leading a neo-Nazi group that was alleged to have been planning an attack on a New York synagogue. The FBI began investigating Belanger because it suspected he was planning to harm people and destroy property in hate-motivated attacks, according to court documents filed this month. "The investigation was grounded in evidence that defendant was using social media to conspire with others, including members of a group called Rapekrieg, to commit ... hate crimes," the documents said. Other members of the group identified Belanger as a leader and administrator of the group, who had written Rapekrieg's manifesto.

(U) Iraq – Followers of Cleric Enter Parliament in Show of Force

(U) Baghdad – Hundreds of Iraqi protesters breached Baghdad's parliament yesterday chanting anti-Iran curses in a demonstration against a nominee for prime minister by Iran-backed parties. Most of the protesters were followers of influential Shiite cleric Muqtada al-Sadr. The demonstrators, all of them men, were seen walking on tables of the parliament floor, leafing through folders, sitting in the chairs of lawmakers, and waving Iraqi flags. The incident raised the stakes in the political struggle for Iraq nearly 10 months after federal elections. No lawmakers were present. Only security forces were inside the building, and they appeared to allow the protesters in with relative ease.
